

Thanks to You . . .

People in Reading Live the Love

Thanks to you, residents in northwest Reading had the opportunity to experience the full power of Jesus' love.

Over the weekend of October 3-5, Hope Lutheran Church in Reading sponsored a gathering for their community entitled Live the Love. The event revolved around Jesus' words in John 15:12, "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

The keynote musician and speaker was Agape, a Christian rapper who has appeared in national and regional youth gatherings. Agape called participants to experience the full power of Jesus' love by sharing that love with others – looking for concrete ways to make a difference in their communities.

The weekend culminated in a block party attended by hundreds of children, youth, and adults who had an opportunity to enjoy food, games, and music while connecting with members of the congregation and hearing the message of Jesus' love and his call to follow him in a life of love.

Agape's presence at the event was made possible by you through a grant from the synod's Witness and Service Ministry Team. Thank you!

Produced by Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod. For more information or to contribute a story, contact Carol Weiser, 4865 Hamilton Blvd., Wescosville, PA 18106; 610/395-6891; nepsynod@rcn.com.

FOR 8.5" x 14" TRI-FOLD BULLETINS, USE THIS VERSION

FOR 8.5" x 11" BI-FOLD BULLETINS, USE THIS VERSION

Thanks to You . . .

People in Reading Live the Love

Thanks to you, residents in northwest Reading had the opportunity to experience the full power of Jesus' love.

Over the weekend of October 3-5, Hope Lutheran Church in Reading sponsored a gathering for their community entitled Live the Love. The event revolved around Jesus' words in John 15:12, "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

The keynote musician and speaker was Agape, a Christian rapper who has appeared in national and regional youth gatherings. Agape called participants to experience the full power of Jesus' love by sharing that love with others – looking for concrete ways to make a difference in their communities.

The weekend culminated in a block party attended by hundreds of children, youth, and adults who had an opportunity to enjoy food, games, and music while connecting with members of the congregation and hearing the message of Jesus' love and his call to follow him in a life of love.

Agape's presence at the event was made possible by you through a grant from the synod's Witness and Service Ministry Team. Thank you!

Produced by Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod. For more information or to contribute a story, contact Carol Weiser, 4865 Hamilton Blvd., Wescosville, PA 18106; 610/395-6891; nepsynod@rcn.com.

