At-Risk Children Attend Day Camp

- Thanks to you, more than 200 children were able to experience a week of day camp this summer.
- For many years, the summer day camp, sponsored by West Berks Mission District in cooperation with Bear Creek Camp, has served between 200 and 300 children—primarily inner city "at risk" children in Reading.

Grant money from the synod Witness and Service Ministry Team ensures that low-income children can attend one of the week-long sessions. This year's financial support provided t-shirts for all the children and transportation and the opportunity for field trips and special learning opportunities during the week.

The day camp experience is often the highlight of the summer for these children. During the week the children learned that God teaches us to trust, to care for creation, and to care for each other. They enjoyed music and crafts, going swimming, and taking field trips.

The grant from the ministry team was made possible by you and your gifts through mission support.

Thank you.
