Accessibility Is Possible

Thanks to you, congregations can be more accessible.

The Accessibility Team (the "A-Team") of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod provides materials, guidelines, and other resources for assisting congregations and groups to be accepting and accessible.

Access happens when congregational members overcome fears of difference, accept people with disabilities as people first whose "difference" and gifts enrich congregational life, and then make the program and building adaptations, if needed, for a "barrier-free" congregation.

Thanks to you and your gifts, the A-Team can respond to requests from congregations for help in making accessibility possible.

Thanks to your gifts, too, the A-Team provides help through the synod website. Find materials and ideas for Accessibility Sunday and photos and stories of congregations who made their facilities accessible.
